Senior Class Song

This is the ending of our Senior Year,

Sev'ring our union 'neath the gold and blue,

Facing the future without thought of fear,

O Emmanuel, we're singing to you.

Gone are the days of our four happy years,

Like the mist of a dream, like a glory fading fast.

But close to our hearts with a smile that shines through tears

We will hold our fair colors to the last.

Farewell to college and its days of cheer,

Farewell dear comrades we are leaving here.

Farewell our Faculty, our guides so true,

May God's blessing be always with you.

Farewell, Alma Mater, fare thee well!

—EILEEN B. SKEFFINGTON.

Senior Class Hymn

Jesus, our God, our Emmanuel,
Let us e'er rest in Thy heart.
Thou art our strength and our solace;
Never, dear Lord, from us part;
Guide us through youth's winding channels
Safe to the haven of rest.
Teach us Thy lesson, O Jesus,
That life in Thy service is blest.

Jesus, our God, our Emmanuel,
Keep us from sin's deadly stain.
Loyal and loving and truthful
May our hearts ever remain;
Help us to work for Thy glory,
Aid us our duty to see;
And when our work is done, Jesus,
May we be happy with Thee.

—Geraldine D. Berrigan.
