Class Song
Alma Mater

We love thee for thy hours of work
Thy hours of pleasure, too;
For fellowships and friendships tried
To last the long years through.

Chorus
Remembering thy gracious care
Today we say a fond farewell;
The years will find thee still in mind,
Our dear Emmanuel.

We praise thee for the knowledge gained
In happy days now past;
Thy lessons we shall always heed,
Where'er our lots are cast.

We thank thee for the youthful dreams
We hope to realize;
For standards and for memories,
Which we shall ever prize.

We pray that God will be with us
Along our separate ways,
To keep us safe throughout our life,
And true to thee always.

—Ruth Mary Grush.

Tree Song

Grow little tree, unto the sky,
Your youthful boughs uppling,
Grow taller as the years go by,
Reborn anew each spring;
And may this tiny budding tree
Unfolding verdant hue,
Renew each year our fealty,
Emmanuel, to you.

We give this tree, ere we depart
From out your portals dear,
A tree as young and true of heart
As we who plant it here;
And may it some day symbolize
In strength and beauty, too,
The hopes which from our hearts arise,
Emmanuel, for you.

—Elizabeth Ruth Healey.
