Class Song
To Emmanuel

Ο

Today our memories shall unfold
Sweet thoughts of four loved years,
Of joys, of tears, of friendships,
More dear to us than gold.

Refrain
O Emmanuel, we love thee,
We revere thy creed and name,
We pledge to thee true fealty,
We shall glory in thy fame.
O Emmanuel, we thank thee,
Parting, we salute thee,
Beg Christ's blessings on thee,
Our beloved Emmanuel.

Thy doctrines we have sought to learn,
Our lives thou hast richer made;
And by thy laws replete with truth,
Our faith thou hast made more firm.

And now the time has come to part,
To leave the scenes we love;
But travel where we shall, we give
Emmanuel our heart.

—HELEN ANNE GLYNN.

Tree Song

Ο

Day's fading roses hang on the western cloud,
This tree we plant, must rise majestic, proud;
Deep as its roots is our true love of thee,
Our Alma Mater, to whom we pledge this tree.

Refrain
We pledge our fealty, we give all to thee,
Emmanuel, to thee!

Young as this tree, are we who plant it here;
Sadly we turn from days we hold so dear.
Each year this tree blooms our love for thee will swell,
Gladly thy praises our fond lips will tell.

—AGNES EILEEN McHUGH.
