Class Song

Adieu Emmanuel

O

Four happy years are now gone by,
What waits for us beyond?
A veil conceals what we would know—
A secret held in bond.
Sorrow or joy awaits
At the world's unfolding gates,
With valiant hearts, we stand prepared
To meet what e'er our fate.

Refrain:
A fond farewell, Emmanuel, we bid thee,
And grieve that parting, from thee comes today,
Through all tomorrows,
Mid joy and sorrow
Near thee in memory, we long to stay.
We beg thy blessing on us, Alma Mater,
A prayer that God will be with us alway.
The future holds no fears,
Yet we leave thee with tears,
We're bidding thee adieu,
Emmanuel.

—Helen Elizabeth Murphy

Tree Song

O

Emmanuel, we leave with thee this sapling strong
A living pledge of our fidelity.
Thy strength, its trunk; thy love and truth, its branches;
Encircling us thro' all eternity.
So budding tree, expand with love symbolical.
Be firm and strong with arms outstretched to tell
That with our hearts we left
God's gift and ours
To Alma Mater true, our own Emmanuel.

—Helen Edith Kelleher
